

TENUTA SANTA SERAFFA

Gavi DOCG del Comune di Gavi

Color

Straw yellow

Aroma

Hints of citrus, green-apple and exotic fruit

Palate

The palate is fresh and mineral, with hints of fruit with yellow pulp, citrus and a sustained finish

Grape variety

Cortese

Area

The hills of the Comune of Gavi in the province of Alessandria, South Piedmont

Vineyards

Plant density 4,000-4,500 vines per hectare. Exposures East and South-East at altitudes between 200 and 400 MAMSL Clayey soil tending to calcareous

Food match

This wine is a perfect accompaniment to seafood and shellfish

Awards

Vintage 2020

Bronze Medal - IWSC

90 points - Jacopo Manni (intravino.com)

Vintage 2019

Bronze Medal - SOMMELIER WINE AWARDS 2020